

I support Satellite Radio! How is this any different then Direct TV providing local programming for their subscribers? Not to mention taking way XMs right to free speech! This is not something that is free to the general public, we pay a monthly fee for their programming so how can you decide what they broadcast.